

THE SELF-SUFFICIENT SAVIOR
Exodus 3:1-15 // October 20, 2024 AM

I. The Savior makes Himself known through a self-sufficient flame (vv. 1-12).

II. The Saviour makes Himself known through a self-sufficient name (vv. 13-15).

QUESTIONS FOR FAMILY WORSHIP

1. What is high and low self-esteem? How did each play out in Moses's life? What was it that delivered him from both, giving him a healthy self-estimation?
2. Where was Moses when the angel of the LORD appeared to him? Why is that significant?
3. Who is the angel of the LORD? How does the fuller revelation of the New Testament give us insight into the angel's identity that Moses wouldn't have had?
4. What is so significant about the fire in the bush? What does it symbolize?
5. Did Moses feel sufficient to deliver God's people from Egypt? Why, or why not?
6. Who would be with Moses in his insufficiency? How does this promise in v. 12 apply to us today?
7. What did God reveal His name to be? What is its meaning, and how does it relate to the fire in the bush?

QUESTIONS FOR PRIVATE REFLECTION

1. Do I struggle with high or low self-esteem? According to this text and the broader teaching of Scripture, what do I need?
2. Can I explain how God's independent imminence is revealed in both the flame and the name?
3. How does the revelation of God in Moses's call prepare the way for Christ? How might I use this story to share the gospel with an unbelieving family member or friend?
