

WITH UNVEILED FACE

Exodus 34:29-35 // May 10, 2026 AM

The path to covenant blessing is beholding and becoming like our Lord.

I. God's glory transfixes us through the mediator.

II. God's glory transforms us like the mediator.

QUESTIONS FOR FAMILY WORSHIP

1. What happened to Moses's face after beholding the glory of God on Sinai? Why do many pictures of Moses from the medieval era depict him with horns?
2. How did Moses' glowing face relate to the words he spoke to Israel?
3. Pastor Nick said that Moses "embodied the tabernacle." How so exactly?
4. Read Matthew 17:1-5. How is the glory revealed through Christ on the mount even greater than the glory revealed through Moses?
5. How was Moses both a mediator and model for Israel in this story? How is Christ the same for us?
6. What is the only way to find true freedom from our sin and idolatry?
7. Since Christ is in heaven, where can we behold Him today?

QUESTIONS FOR PRIVATE REFLECTION

1. Why is the face so important if intimate communication is to take place? What does this teach us about our relationship with the Lord?
2. How is the glory radiating from Christ's face similar and different from that reflecting off of Moses's face?
3. Are there prevailing sins in my life that I can't seem to overcome? What is the only path the Bible gives for the transformation I need?
