BEHOLDING AND BECOMING

2 Corinthians 3:12-18 // November 15, 2026 AM

New covenant ministry boldly beckons us into the blessing of beholding and becoming like Jesus.

I. Moses veiled the glory of God (vv. 13-15).

II. Jesus unveils the glory of God (vv. 16-18).

QUESTIONS FOR FAMILY WORSHIP

1. What is the hope that Paul spoke of in v. 12, and why did it make him bold? Why does it continue to make ministers of the gospel bold today?
2. What is a veil? Why did Moses need to veil his face?
3. How did Moses' veil point forward to the tabernacle/temple? How did it serve as a picture of the spiritual condition of the Israelites?
4. What is the first step in spiritual formation, and why is all our striving to honor God in vain without it?
5. What is Christ's relationship to the Holy Spirit in the new covenant, and what is the Holy Spirit's relationship to believers in the same?
6. Where can we see the glory of God in Christ today? Why is this important to be clear about?
7. What happens to us as we behold God's glory in and through Jesus? Can you give some examples of what this transformation might look like in everyday life?

QUESTIONS FOR PRIVATE REFLECTION

1. Is the phrase "spiritual formation" helpful? Why, or why not? How has it been a needed corrective in the modern church but also abused and misunderstood?
2. Have I been delivered from a thick skull and a stony heart through union with Christ by the Spirit?
3. What are same tangible evidences of spiritual transformation in my life, flowing from a sanctifying sight of Christ through the Scriptures?
